Location: Goodwill of Central Iowa, 5355 NW 86th St., Johnston
One block north of the 86th St. exit from I-35

Please RSVP here

The topic will be the proposed Children's Mental Health Mobile Crisis Unit
and a Crisis Observation Center.

11:30 AM Free luncheon of Baked Potato Bar

Noon to 1:30

We will have a speaker and a chance for you to weigh in on the critically needed children's mental health crisis services.

Anne Starr will be speaking on behalf of Orchard Place.

Think about how you can provide input...

*What are your expectations for a children's mobile crisis unit
and a crisis observation center?*

What should be avoided?

What are your concerns?

What other input do you want to provide?

Please RSVP here

NAMI Greater Des Moines is an institutional member of AMOS.

This conversation is the result of AMOS talking to members of our community and working with the City of Des Moines on the one cent local option sales tax. The local option one cent sales tax, if passed, will help to build the Children's Mental Health Crisis Services.

Families are desperate for help. Youth are in need of care.
We need to create a lifeline of services.
