Are You Struggling to Help Someone With Mental Illness Accept Treatment?

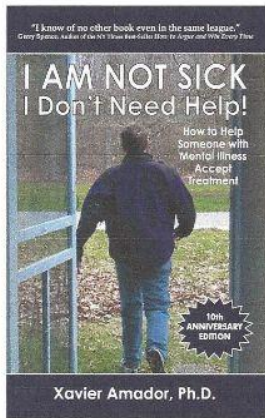

Are you struggling to help someone with mental illness accept treatment?

Join Dr. Xavier Amador, world renowned clinical psychologist and author of I AM NOT SICK, I Don't Need Help! May 7th in Omaha and learn how to create relationships with people who have serious mental illness and ANOSOGNOSIA—a neurological symptom that leaves a person unable to understand that s/he is ill, resulting in treatment refusal, noncompliance, and conflict with loved ones and professionals.

NAMI members receive a 20% discount on registration. Early bird reduced fees end March 31.

A flyer of more information on LEAP and Anosognosia can be found here. Scroll down the page to find LEAP training.

Struggling with someone who has SEVERE MENTAL ILLNESS & refuses help?

Join Dr. Xavier Amador, world renowned clinical psychologist, and learn the #1 reason people refuse help and how to create therapeutic alliances that lead to treatment and recovery.

- Quickly establish trust & compliance
- Increase treatment adherence
- De-escalate anger, paranoia & avoidance
- Avoid involuntary hospitalization
- Identify anosognosia vs. "denial"
