

September 2020 Additional Mental Health Related Articles from Around the Nation

30 Years After Americans With Disabilities Act, A Look Back And Ahead - It took people with disabilities crawling their way up the Capitol steps to get the landmark civil rights bill passed three decades ago, and even today, hurdles remain. Read More >

Stride Rite Rolls Out Shoes For Kids With Special Needs - A major shoe company is unveiling sneakers specifically designed for children with special needs. Read More >

In First, Hotel Embraces Universal Design - At a first-of-its-kind Hampton Inn opening this week, inclusive design comes standard throughout the property in a bid to be as welcoming as possible to guests of all abilities. Read More >

Senate COVID-19 Relief Proposal Overlooks Disability Community, Advocates Say - As negotiations begin in earnest on Capitol Hill for another coronavirus relief bill, advocates are warning that the needs of people with disabilities are on the verge of being ignored again. Read More >

Feds Fail To Track COVID-19 At Institutions - Institutions serving people with developmental disabilities have been hard hit by the coronavirus, but no one knows how widespread the issue is and advocates say that needs to change. Read More >

Millions Awarded In Rental Assistance For People With Disabilities - Federal officials are sending millions of dollars in rental assistance to help people with disabilities in a dozen states. Read More >

Ed Department Accused Of Diverting Funds From Students With Disabilities - A lawsuit filed this week accuses the U.S. Department of Education of jeopardizing students with disabilities by misdirecting funds meant to help schools deal with fallout from the pandemic. Read More >

COVID-19 Taking A Toll On Direct Support Professionals - The coronavirus is rocking the already unstable workforce assisting people with developmental disabilities, with a new survey finding nearly half of DSPs know someone who's left the profession. Read More >

Amid Pandemic, Young Kids With Special Needs Missing Out On Services - As COVID-19 disrupts the transition from early intervention to school, children are going without occupational, physical and speech therapies and other services they're entitled to. Read More >

Report Uncovers Dozens Of Sexual Assaults At Devereux Residential Centers - At least 41 children with IQs as low as 50 have been raped or sexually assaulted by staff in the last 25 years at a network of residential centers across nine states, an investigation has found. Read More >

This City Stopped Sending Police to Every 911 Call - The Daily Beast—Washington

Orlando to Test Sending Therapists, Social Workers along with Police for Mental Health Calls - Orlando Sentinel—Florida

What Is Law Enforcement's Role in Mental Health Calls? - WKSU—Ohio

'A Moment Has Found Us': The Arnold Ventures Approach to Police Reform and Rethinking Public Safety - Arnold Ventures—National

Crisis Stabilization Units Eye Expansion - Northwestern Arkansas Democrat-Gazette—Arkansas

How Barbers Are Stepping Up for Black Men and Mental Health - Healthline—National

In Lockdown, 'Tele-Health' Offers High-Tech Lifeline to Justice-Involved - The Crime Report—National

September 2020 Additional Mental Health Related Articles from Around the Nation

Op-Ed: When Reimagining Justice in Our Communities, Probation Must Be Part of the Conversation - WitnessLA—California

Leading the Nation, Michigan's Opioid Treatment Ecosystems Save Lives through Holistic Model - Flintside—Michigan

What The Coronavirus Means For IEPs This Year - As a school year like no other gets underway, the laws surrounding individualized education programs remain unchanged and experts say parents should fight for the services their kids need. Read More >

Bank Of America Accused Of Disability Discrimination - One of the nation's largest banks has reached a settlement with the federal government over allegations that it discriminated against people with disabilities under guardianships. Read More >

After 20 Years, 'Intentional Community' For Those With Disabilities Breaks Ground - A group of families who came together at Special Olympics events decades ago is starting to see their dream of an affordable housing community for people with disabilities come to fruition. Read More >

Bank Of America Accused Of Disability Discrimination - One of the nation's largest banks has reached a settlement with the federal government over allegations that it discriminated against people with disabilities under guardianships. Read More >

More Than A Quarter Million People Screened Positive For Depression, Anxiety Since Start Of The Pandemic

Why Imposter Syndrome Goes Deep for Multiracial People

Caring for Patients in The Time Of COVID-19

#Iamvanessaguillen: The Pandemic of Sexual Assault in The Military

We All Need to Be Working Through Racial Trauma. Yes, Even White People.

6 Ways to Feel Less Lonely

This Is What Depression Sounds Like

Toxic Stress, Discrimination, and its Lasting Impact on Mental Health

CNN: In the shadow of Covid-19, mental health help can't come soon enough

Medscape: 'Staggering' Increase in COVID-Linked Depression, Anxiety

The New York Times: When Things Aren't OK With a Child's Mental Health

TIME Magazine: The Coronavirus Seems to Spare Most Kids From Illness, but Its Effect on Their Mental Health Is Deepening

The Hill: Michelle Obama says she is managing 'low-grade depression'

September 2020 Additional Mental Health Related Articles from Around the Nation

Citing COVID-19, Advocates Want Medicaid Caregiver Check-In Mandate Delayed - Federal officials are being asked to pause the rollout of a new requirement that care providers electronically check in when assisting people with disabilities in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. Read More >

States Pressured To Remove Disability Bias From Medical Care Guidelines - In what's being called a national precedent, yet another state is agreeing to change its approach to providing medical care during the pandemic in order to prevent disability discrimination. Read More >

Pandemic Pushes Parents Of Kids With Special Needs To Breaking Point - Parents are feeling isolated, stressed and overwhelmed at a time when families need more support than ever to deal with a loss of routine, heightened anxiety and other challenges. Read More >

School During Coronavirus Poses Unique Issues For Students In Special Ed - Deciding whether to send kids to school in person or stick with virtual learning is proving especially fraught for parents of students in special education. Read More >

COVID-19 May Shut Many Disability Programs For Good - Disability service providers across the country are closing programs as the coronavirus pandemic wears on and many are unlikely to reopen. Read More >

Black Children Wait Longer For Autism Diagnosis - New research shows that it often takes three years and visits to multiple providers before Black children are diagnosed with autism, denying them a critical opportunity for therapy. Read More >

Kids With Disabilities Are Regressing. How Much Is Distance Learning To Blame? - Parents' worries are intensifying as they see their children's hard-fought advances diminishing — and fear that losses will be compounded with more distance learning ahead. Read More >

Students Create Job Platform For People With Developmental Disabilities - An online job board that's in the works will offer individuals with developmental disabilities creative ways to showcase their talents and expertise beyond a traditional resume or cover letter. Read More >

How Race Matters: What We Can Learn from Mental Health America's Screening In 2020

What It Takes to Find A Therapist That Gets You And Your Identity

So You Want To Start Journaling? Now What?

5 Reasons Why It's Healthy to Cry

Mother Jones: Disasters Are Driving a Mental Health Crisis. The Only Federal Program to Address It Is Underfunded

Make A Difference: US Study Finds Alarming Increases in COVID-19-Associated Anxiety & Depression: How Self-Screenings & Self-Care Can Help

Forbes: Statistics Show Remote Workers Are Frustrated, Many Still Unprepared For Working From Home

Cision: FlexJobs and Mental Health America Survey Finds Three-Quarters of Workers Have Experienced Burnout

Washington Post: Time to ditch 'toxic positivity,' experts say: 'It's okay not to be okay'

September 2020 Additional Mental Health Related Articles from Around the Nation

PEOPLE: Teens Across the Country Share Their Mental Health Struggles During COVID-19

The Wall Street Journal: Coronavirus Turmoil Raises Depression Risks in Young Adults

US News and World Report: An Era of Peril for Black Mental Health

Pandemic Hitting Families of Those with Disabilities Harder - Family caregivers of people with disabilities are experiencing isolation, anxiety and other ill-effects from the coronavirus pandemic in far greater numbers than others, new research finds. Read More >

Justice Department Settles Dispute With School District Over Service Animals - A school district is agreeing to pay up and change its ways after federal officials say a student with disabilities was denied access to her trained service dog in violation of the ADA. Read More >

Struggling Without Special Ed Services, Some Opt to Sue - Hundreds of families across the country have signed onto lawsuits alleging that schools not operating in person or offering compensatory services are illegally denying special education. Read More >

Funeral Home Finds Woman with Cerebral Palsy Is Still Alive - After an apparent seizure, a 20-year-old with cerebral palsy was pronounced dead and kept in a body bag for hours before funeral home employees discovered that she was very much alive. Read More >